

WENDY CAPLAND

- Internationally Recognized Leadership Development Expert
- Sought-After Speaker in High Demand
- Best Selling Author
- Chief Executive Officer and Founder of Vision Quest Consulting

As one of the top women leaders in America in the field of leadership development, Wendy Capland inspires women to create their ideal vision for life, and then boldly step into it. Wendy says with confidence, "You can be anything! Boldness has magic in it. Believe in yourself and be bold!" This belief amplifies itself daily as Wendy dedicates herself to successfully and strategically inspiring women to find their purpose and re-invent themselves personally and professionally. Wendy lays the groundwork for women to step into their purpose and ultimately rock their own world in record time.

Wendy has over 20 years of experience as Chief Executive Officer of Vision Quest Consulting, a leadership firm that provides Executive Coaching, Corporate Training, and Facilitation services to both Fortune 500 corporations and entrepreneurial firms. Her team of 45 consultants, coaches and trainers inspire leaders to become their best, grow their teams, and work across boundaries with stronger influence and impact as they learn how to light a fire under themselves and their business results.

Wendy and her Vision Quest team have worked with many industry leaders in the Technology, Finance, Healthcare, Insurance, Professional Services and Consumer Product corporations in the United States, Canada, Europe, and China who rely on their expertise to grow their businesses and their leadership.

Many prestigious women's leadership conferences and large well-known organizations throughout the United States have sought after and hired Wendy to speak and provide leadership development workshops and programming for their senior women. Over the last few years Wendy has presented alongside other notable women such as, Hillary Clinton, fashion guru Donna Karan, Wall Street Executive Sallie Krawcheck, and award winning actress, Viola Davis to name just a few.

Wendy Capland has achieved some of the most highly regarded accomplishments in her field. In 2011, her peers nominated and elected her for induction into the International Coach Federation New England Hall of Fame for her contribution to the coaching profession. She is a founding member of the ICF- New England and through her leadership became the largest chapter worldwide. Wendy is one of the world's first Master Certified Coaches; the highest international certification awarded by the largest membership association of coaches worldwide, The International Coach Federation.

Wendy contributes significantly back to the community as an Executive Coach to Ted.com's Global Leadership Program and annually at the Global Institute for Leadership Development. Her firm continues to provide Leadership Coaching for 3500 women annually at the renowned and longest continuously running conference for women's leadership in the country; The Simmons Leadership Conference.

And since 2003, she can be found most Friday mornings volunteering at Emerson Hospital in Concord, Massachusetts.

Annually, Wendy runs two unique and powerful women's leadership retreats each year, where she ignites inspiration and motivation for women attendees to make big bold changes in their lives. These events are a must for any woman ready to create a new kind of leadership for themselves as they learn to expand their vision, their contributions, and the impact they are meant to make in the world.

Wendy earned her place as a best-selling author in January 2014 with the publication of her most recent book, Your Next Bold Move for Women; 9 Proven Steps to Everything You Every Wanted. A percentage of her book sales go to support the Youth Villages-Germaine Lawrence Campus, a residential facility for adolescent girls.

Wendy even produced an inspiring TV show, Your Next Bold Move, which has been vibrantly viewed in over 2.5 million households monthly for 3.5 years (2009-2013).

Wendy holds a master's degree in Counseling Psychology with a concentration in Business Management from Boston College and a bachelor's degree from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

Rarely still and never complacent, Wendy pursues health and fitness with lifting weights, downhill skiing, and enjoys spending precious time with the man of her dreams – her husband of 20 years, and with their children.
